

Will these changes affect my benefit?

Some of the changes listed may not affect your benefit but it is important you inform us of any changes.

If you do not tell us about a change in your circumstances you may receive too much benefit and we will expect you to pay it back.

Housing & Council Tax Benefit

Change in circumstances

Leaflet also available in large print

Introduction

This guide is one of a number produced with the aim of helping customers understand Housing and Council Tax Benefit.

It is intended as a general guide. People have different circumstances so for more detailed individual advice please contact your local Council's Benefits Service.

Your entitlement to benefit

Your entitlement to Housing and/or Council Tax Benefit is based on the information you put on your application form.

If you or other members of your household have a change in circumstances it is important you tell us immediately. Any change could affect your entitlement and either mean you being overpaid benefit or missing out on extra benefit which is due.

The changes you need to tell us about

Examples of the changes that we need to know about are listed below. You must tell us about changes in:-

- Wages
- Tax Credits
- Maintenance received
- Benefits i.e. Income Support / Jobseeker's Allowance / Employment and Support Allowance etc
- Savings i.e. bank accounts, stocks & shares etc
- Any other income
- When somebody moves in, or out of your home
- Your rent.

Or if you:-

- Move out of the property
- Are admitted to hospital
- Go to prison
- Become a student or stop being a student

If you are unsure whether or not we need to know about a change in your circumstances please contact us for advice.

When do I have to tell you about any changes?

You must tell us immediately about a change in your circumstances. If you don't you could lose benefit or a benefit overpayment could occur.

If the change means you could get more benefit and you tell us within one month of the change happening we will usually work out your benefit from the Monday following the date the change happened.

If you tell us after one month and the change means you could get more benefit we can only work out your benefit from the Monday after you tell us. This means you may lose benefit.

If a change happens which means you would get less benefit you should tell us immediately. If you delay in telling us we will still work out your benefit by going back to the Monday after the date the change happened. This means you could be overpaid benefit which you would have to pay back.

If it is felt that you have deliberately delayed or not reported a change in circumstances we may consider going to court and you may be prosecuted. It is an offence to not report a change which may affect your benefit.
